To Whom it May Concern:

It is my pleasure to recommend actor Sal Rendino for representation.

I first saw Sal in a film that was nominated for Best Feature in the Long Island International Film Expo (LIIFE). I called him in to read for a feature film and was so impressed with his audition that I followed his career while waiting for the right role in which to cast him.

Since utilizing his acting skills in my film, Leaving, and casting him in several other projects, he has become a Long Island filmmaker favorite. I and other director associates write films/roles with Sal in mind because of his tremendously versatile talent, wonderful wit, and incredible set ethics and energy.

I see nothing but a bright and successful future for Sal Rendino, and I am developing an original online content series, Couple of Guys, with Sal as one of the leads (alongside Brian O'Halloran, Kevin Brown, Robert Clohessy etc). He is so valued that we are going to work with his schedule as we progress in the production phase.

I just can't say enough positive things about Sal. He's an amazing talent, and while I don't personally vouch for many people in this industry, I know he can handle anything I send his way with talent, integrity, grace and complete professionalism.
